

Anthems:

- Arise, shine, for the queen's chapel
- Behold, God is my salvation
- Behold, how good and joyful, Act of Union with Scotland, 1707
- Blessed is the people
- Give the Lord the honour due, 'Thanksgiving for the Peace'
- Hearken unto me, for the laying of foundations for the Gibbs building, King's College, 1724
- Is it true that God will dwell with men?, 'sung before Queen Anne at Windsor', 1702
- I will lift up mine eyes, 'Sung to the Queen at the Bath'
- I will sing unto the Lord, Battle of Blenheim, 1704
- Let us now praise worthy men
- My God, my God, look upon me, 'on ye Passion', 1675
- My heart rejoiceth in the Lord, Treaty of Utrecht, 1713, with str, oboes
- Not unto us, O Lord
- O come, let us sing unto the Lord, with str (B pt only extant)
- O how amiable are thy dwellings
- O praise the Lord, Battle of Oudenaarde, 1708
- Plead thou my cause, 'On the change of Ministry', 1714
- Sing, O heavens, for the queen at Windsor
- Sing we merrily
- The Lord hath declared, Rye House Plot, 1683, with str
- The Lord hear thee, Cambridge MusB exercise, 1681, with str
- The Lord is righteous
- Thou, O Lord, hast heard our desire, sung before the queen in King's College Chapel, 1705

Other sacred:

- Services:
 - Morning and Communion, B (Te Deum, Jubilate, Recordare, Credo), with orch, for the planned opening of Wimpole Chapel, 1721
 - Evening, A (Magnificat, Nunc), inc.
 - Evening, B (Magnificat, Nunc)

- Evening, G (Magnificat, Nunc), inc
- Funeral Sentences, g, e, complete but composite
- Motet:
 - Quare fremuerunt gentes, Cambridge MusB exercise, 1681, with str
- Magnificat
- Nunc Dimittis
- Te Deum "Warpole"
- It is true that God will dwell with men?
- Jubilate

Secular:

- Hail, happy day, auspicious light (ode), Queen Anne's birthday
- Songs and catches in 1683, 1685, 1687, 1688